RULES AND REGULATIONS

TRADING-WAIVER PERIODS

With the approval of the new Basic Agreement between the players and the clubs, American League Only and National League Only waivers have been abolished.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule." (a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as in the practice of the home team.
2. In All-Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

(Adopted by the American League for the 1973 season.)

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup cards presented to the Umpire-in-Chief.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A runner may be substituted for the Designated Hitter and the runner assumes the role of the Designated Hitter.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the DH role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:

(1) A curfew imposed by law;

(2) A time limit permissible under league rules;

(3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.);

(4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on;

(5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:

(i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.

(ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:

(1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds;

or

(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or

(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;

(i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or

(ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.

(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)

Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and

(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

(b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1:00 AM local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1:00 AM, local time, it can be completed . . . Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams . . . This is the only curfew in the American League.

GAME WINNING RBI

"GAME WINNING RBI" is the run batted in that gives a club a lead it never relinquishes. (NOTE: There does not have to be a game-winning RBI in every game and all game-winning RBIs must conform to Rule 10.04.)

PLAYERS TO WEAR EAR FLAPS

All National Association players will wear double ear flaps. Major League players are urged to wear the double ear flap protection, but are obliged only to wear the single ear flap (except all players not wearing ear flaps in 1982 are not compelled to do so now.)

See Page 92 for Proposed Rules Changes.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release — October 29, 1987

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT
IN GREETING TO
THE MINNESOTA TWINS BASEBALL TEAM
1987 WORLD SERIES WINNER

The Rose Garden

11:30 A.M. EST

(Following are excerpts from President Reagan's remarks.)

THE PRESIDENT: Well, I thank you all and I'd like to welcome the winners of the 84th World Series, the Minnesota Twins—their owner, Carl Pohlad; and the umpires and officials of Major League Baseball to the White House and Washington, the Twins' original home. And by the way, if you'd like to move back here, keep in mind, there's no astroturf here—the Rose Garden has real grass. And I know there are a lot of people in this town who want a Major League baseball team again, so if you guys ever get tired of playing in front of all those screaming, adoring fans, you're welcome back.

Well, actually, I could use a couple of you guys in the Congress hitting some grand slams for me up there—and maybe some of you umpires calling the shots.

But seriously, I'd like to congratulate your manager, Tom Kelly—the youngest non-playing manager to take his team to a World Series since 1905—and Frank Viola, the Series Most Valuable Player; and Gary Gaetti, the League Championship Series Most Valuable Player. And, Frank and Gary, you two really did an outstanding job, as did all the Twins.

You know, right up until the end, there were a few skeptics saying the Twins didn't stand a chance. Well, you guys proved them wrong, winning all four home games, which is the way it should have been—what with your home-win percentage of .691, the best of any team during the past season. That's one heck of a finish considering the Twins were 150-1 long-shots at the start of the season.

But with Frank's pitching; Gary's fielding; and the hitting of Kirby Puckett, and Dan Gladden, and Tom Brunansky and Kent Hrbek, your team was a shoo-in. As Kirby said after the final victory, you're "number one in the whole world."

The Minnesota Twins franchise has come a long way in the past 86 years. It started out as the Washington Senators, won the '24 World Series; lost in the '25 and '33 Series; moved to Minnesota in '61; and lost the '65 Series; and finally, ending up with a thrilling seventh game victory in front of 55,376 decibel-shattering fans. You know, one sportscaster announcing those games proclaimed, "Forget the decibel meter; how about the Richter Scale." Or as second baseman Steve Lombardozzi said, "I wish all the fans that were out there tonight could stand in my shoes and feel the exhilarating feeling. It is beyond description." Well, Steve, I'm not sure those fans didn't feel a bit of the exhilaration. I know they felt the thunder. . .

Well, you know, this is the true essence of sportsmanship, what has taken place here. A World Series saw two teams competing right down to the ninth inning of the seventh game. . .

I'd like to think the Cardinals were winners in their own way. They made no excuses and they accepted their defeat with class.

So to all you champions here and those homer hanky-waving Minnesotans back home as well as here, again congratulations. And Steve Lombardozzi no longer needs to worry about hearing the term "Twinkie" anymore. The Minnesota Twins are the World Champs.

So good luck, champs, and God bless you all.

World Series MVP Frank Viola and Twins Manager Tom Kelly presented a Twins #1 jersey to President Ronald Reagan in White House Rose Garden ceremonies last October, as other Twins team members look on.

MR. POHLAD: Well, thank you, Mr. President. On behalf of the Minnesota Twins, Minnesota, and the entire upper Midwest area, we thank you for this honor, Mr. President. . .

I'm proud of our team, Mr. President. They operate—or, work together as a family. Never have I heard the expression "I." You understand how important it is to work as a team. And everything I've heard this year has been "we, we, we," and I think it's a great tribute to you players out there.

And I'm looking foward to being back here, personally, next year at this time, if you'll be good enough to invite me. . .

MR. KELLY: On behalf of the ball club, I get to do the honors. But one thing I want to bring up here—after looking at these umpires for seven days, it's nice to see their wives with them here today. What an awful sight for seven days. . . You think talking to the media is bad—you talk to these fellows for seven days.

On behalf of the ball club, Mr. President, we've brought along a few tokens of our appreciation of you having us here. We've got a couple of Kent Hrbek model bats, but we've got everybody's name on there. And one's for you and Mrs. Reagan. Also, we have a shirt that Frankie is going to model here. And also, the wives brought their—a whistle along for you—for Mrs. Reagan. Okay. If you need that to referee any of your talks coming up, just whip that baby out.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you very much. I'm very proud to have these things. . . . And now (THE PRESIDENT BLOWS A WHISTLE) here we go.

11:43 a.m. EST

On our cover: the Minnesota Twins celebrate one of the four Metrodome victories that gave them their first World Championship. Here, Dan Gladden (#32) and Kirby Puckett (#34) join their teammates in surrounding first baseman Kent Hrbek, whose grand slam homer sealed a Game 6 win for the Twins.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JOHN McNAMARA—Born June 4, 1932, Sacramento, CA; Residence: Natick, MA . . . Married (Ellen Goode) . . . Height: five feet, ten inches: Weight: 175 pounds . . . Named to succeed Ralph Houk on October 18, 1984.

Entering 1988 McNamara's major league record is 1,005-1,036, including 502-482 in six years in the American League.

In 1986 the Red Sox overcame the dire predictions of most baseball experts to win the American League pennant and come within one out of the World Series title in the hectic seven-game meeting with the New York Mets. That July McNamara was rewarded with a two-year extension of his contract through the 1988 season and a selection as a coach on the A.L. All-Star team. At season's end he was voted A.L. Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America and co-Major League Manager of the Year with the Astros Hal Lanier by The Sporting News. In July of 1987 he was the manager of the A.L. All-Star team in Oakland.

On Oct. 18, 1984 McNamara was named the 36th manager of the Red Sox. He replaced Ralph Houk who retired after four years at Boston. McNamara is starting his 15th full year as a major league manager.

McNamara managed the California Angels for two seasons. In 1984 they finished in a second place tie with Minnesota. In 1983 injuries crippled the Angels and they finished tied for fifth. They were in first place as late as July 10, 1983.

McNamara was a minor league manager for nine years in the Kansas City A's organization before being named a coach with the A's when they moved to Oakland. He has been in the major leagues ever since as either a manager or coach. John made his major league debut with Oakland when he replaced Hank Bauer, Sept. 19, 1969. He led the A's to a second place finish in 1970.

His coaching stints include San Francisco (1971-73) and California (1978). He managed a young San Diego team from 1974 through May 28, 1977. The Padres record improved each year.

McNamara piloted Cincinnati from 1979 through July 20, 1982. He led the Reds to the N.L. West title in 1979 and in 1980 they finished only 3½ games out of first. In the strike-shortened 1981 season the Reds had the best overall record in baseball although they did not appear in post-season play.

McNamara was a minor league catcher and also pitched in 14 games over four years. He attended Sacramento State College and spent two years in the military.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GENE WILLIAM MAUCH—Born November 18, 1925 in Salina, Kansas; Residence: Rancho Mirage, California . . . Height: 5-10 Weight: 175 APPOINTED: October 16, 1984

Gene Mauch has guided the Angels to their most successful three seasons in club history, winning 93 games in 1982, 92 games in 1986 and 90 games in 1985 when California finished one game behind Kansas City. Mauch has completed 26 years of managerial service, ranking him fourth on the All-Time list and just three seasons behind Bucky Harris (29). Other All-Time rankings find him in the No. 4 position in total games (3,943) and No. 8 in victories (1,903). He was originally appointed the Angels' skipper May 28, 1981. After directing the club to their second Western Division title in '82, he resigned Oct. 22, 1982, citing personal reasons. Following a brief retirement, he was rehired as the Angels' Director of Player Personnel Sept. 14, 1983. Mauch eventually reassumed the reigns as field general Oct. 16, 1984. He has earned National League Manager of the Year honors on three occasions—1962, 1964 and 1973. The first two awards were gained at Philadelphia, while the latter was accomplished with Montreal. Mauch started his professional career as a shortstop in the Brooklyn organization in Durham, North Carolina in 1943. He played for six major league clubs—Dodgers, Pirates, Cubs, Braves, Cardinals and Red Sox from 1944-1957, posting a .239 career batting average. He accepted his first managerial post with the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association in 1953 at the age of 27. His first big league assignment occurred in 1960 with Philadelphia. He managed the Phillies from 1960-68, second longest stint by a Philadelphia skipper in modern history. At the time, it was the longest stretch by a Phillies manager since Burt Shotton (1928-33). . . . He is second in Philadelphia history in wins with 645. Only Harry Wright, who managed the club from 1884-93 totaled more (687). Mauch managed the Montreal Expos during their expansion season in 1969. Twice during his tenure with the Expos he reached a high of 79 wins (1973-74). He managed the Phillies, Montreal and Minnesota before resigning from the Twins Aug. 24, 1980. He remained out of baseball until the Angels signed him as Director of Player Personnel Feb. 12, 1981.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JAMES LOUIS FREGOSI—Born April 4, 1942, San Francisco, CA . . . Residence: Sarasota, FL . . . Married (Joni), one daughter (Jennifer) and one son (Jim) . . . Height: 6-2; Weight: 210 . . . Named White Sox manager on June 22, 1986.

Jim Fregosi became the 29th White Sox manager in franchise history and only the second Sox pilot since 1979. It is the second major league managerial job for Fregosi, who piloted the California Angels to a 237-248 record from June 1, 1978 to May 27, 1981. Fregosi came to the Angels after asking his release from the Pittsburgh Pirates for whom he was a utility infielder. Fregosi found instant success in Anaheim, leading the Angels to a 62-54 record during the remainder of the 1978 season and directing the Halos to their first divisional title in 1979. The Angels fell from the top in 1980 and Fregosi was relieved of his managerial duties mid-way through the '81 season. Following his dismissal, Fregosi spent a year away from baseball. He returned to managing in the 1982 off-season when he was named to lead the Louisville Redbirds, the St. Louis Cardinals' "AAA" affiliate in the American Association. As he had done in California, Fregosi found instant success in Louisville. The Redbirds posted the best record in the league in his first year but lost in the league championship series to Denver, the White Sox' farm club. Fregosi, though, copped the loop's manager of the year award. In 1984, Louisville won the American Association title and Baseball America named Fregosi as the minor league manager most likely to succeed in the majors. As an encore, Fregosi led the Redbirds to their second straight Association crown in 1985. The Sporting News named him "AAA" manager of the year and he shared the league's award. When he left Louisville to join the Sox, he owned a 263-232 composite record in three-plus seasons. Since becoming manager of the White Sox June 22, 1986, Fregosi has posted a 122-136 record.

LEAGUE EXPLAINS FORMAT FOR 1988 SCHEDULE

The A. L. schedule uses a balanced format in which each club plays twelve games against all 13 opponents, for a total of 156 games. This includes six home contests and six away against each opponent.

However, in order to reach the seasonal total of 162 games, it is necessary to add six games to the above 156 total. This is accomplished by having each club play six additional games within its division—three home and three away, one with each club in its division.

KEY TO MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

A year of Major League service is equivalent to 172 days of the playing season. On the preceding roster pages, the column at the right indicates the length of the player's service. A designation reading "6.012" means six years and twelve days of M.L. service.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

1987—A RECORD YEAR FOR DON MATTINGLY

A slew of records were met or set by New York Yankee first baseman Don Mattingly during the 1987 season.

The most celebrated of his many accomplishments were home runs in eight consecutive games July 8-18, setting the American League mark for that feat and tying the mark set by Dale Long of Pittsburgh in 1956. In all, Don hit 10 homers during the streak. He also set a major league record for grand slams in a season with six in 1987 and the A.L. mark for most consecutive games with one or more extra base hits (10 games). On April 11th he had two doubles in one inning to tie another M.L. record.

And all his records weren't set at the plate . . . On July 20th Don tied a major league record for most putouts by a first baseman in a nine-inning game with 22 during that contest.

ANDERSON IS BBWAA A.L. MANAGER OF THE YEAR

The Dean of American League managers, Sparky Anderson of the Detroit Tigers, became the only manager to win two BBWAA Manager of the Year Awards, with his second victory in four years.

The polling, done before post-season play begins, ended with Milwaukee skipper Tom Trebelhorn finishing second and World Champion Minnesota Twins manager Tom Kelly in third place.

Anderson led his Tigers to the A.L. Eastern Division title with a 98-64 record. They edged the Toronto Blue Jays out of first place during the final week of the season and lost the ALCS to Minnesota 4 games to 1. Detroit's 98-victories were most by a Major League team last year.

AMERICAN LEAGUE'S MOST VALUABLE PLAYER OF 1987 IS BLUE JAYS' GEORGE BELL

George Bell of Toronto won the American League's Most Valuable Player Award, becoming the first native of the Dominican Republic to own MVP honors and the first Blue Jay in the club's 12-year history.

Bell led the American League in runs-batted-in with 134 and in total bases with 369, in 1987. He hit .308 for the year and was named to his first All-Star team. He hit 47 home runs and slugged .605, to place second to rookie-of-the-year Mark McGwire in both categories. He was second in the A.L. in runs scored (111) to Joe Cronin Award winner Paul Molitor of the Brewers.

Detroit's Alan Trammell, who moved to the clean-up spot in the Tigers' batting order and hit .343 for the season, was second in a close competition. Kirby Puckett of Minnesota was third.

Boston right-hander Roger Clemens won his second straight American League Cy Young Award on the strength of a strong second half of the 1987 season. Clemens won 17 of his last 22 games of the year and 20 of his 29 decisions overall.

Toronto's Jimmy Key was second in the balloting. Third-place finisher Dave Stewart of Oakland and Clemens were the league's only 20-game winners of the year.

Clemens was third in the A.L. with a 2.97 earned run average and second to perrenial leader Mark Langston of Seattle in strikeouts with 256. He led the A.L., however, in shutouts with seven and complete games with 18.

He was named first on 21 of the 28 BBWAA ballots cast. (The complete Cy Young Award voting chart appears below.) Clemens is the first Major League pitcher to win back-to-back Cy Youngs since Jim Palmer of the Orioles took his second in a row in 1976.

A.L. ROOKIE OF THE YEAR AWARD WON BY OAKLAND'S MARK McGWIRE

Mark McGwire set a rookie record with 49 home runs for the Oakland A's last season, which tied the major league mark for the year. He batted .289 in 1987, won a spot on the A.L. All-Star squad and was a unanimous first-place winner in the Baseball Writers of America rookie voting.

Oakland tape-measure homer hitter Jose Canseco was the 1986 A.L. Rookie of the Year and McGwire's award marks the first time an A.L. team has won back-to-back rookie awards since Washington's Albie Pearson (1958) and Bob Allison (1959).

McGwire's performance last season overshadowed the .323 hitting of Kansas City rookie third baseman Kevin Seitzer, who was second in the balloting; and Detroit catcher Matt Nokes' 32 home runs and 87 RBIs. Nokes finished third in the voting.

Last year the Baseball Writers Association of America voted to re-name their Rookie of the Year awards for Jackie Robinson. The voting is done on a 5-3-1 point system and the results of the 1987 vote appear below.

EARLY A.L. MVP WINNERS

The Baseball Writers Association of America officially balloted and named the Most Valuable Player in each major league since 1931. The earlier awards were known as the Chalmers (automobile) Award (1911-14) and then the league made the award from 1922 through 1928. Under league rules, no player could repeat as winner. The early winners are listed at the right.

GAETTI WINS MacPHAIL TROPHY AS MOST VALUABLE TWIN OF '87 ALCS

Third baseman Gary Gaetti of the Minnesota Twins led his team to a decisive 4-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers in the American League Championship Series, and won the Leland S. MacPhail, Jr. Most Valuable Player Award for his performance.

Gaetti started off with two home runs in Game #1 at the Metrodome and went on to hit .300 in the five games, including six hits, five RBIs and five runs scored. He also walked once and was hit by a pitch.

As the ALCS MVP Gary was the recipient of a Chevrolet vehicle which was to be donated to a charity of his choice. He named the Minnesota Veterans Home of Hasting, Minnesota.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES MVP'S

The American League has recognized the Most Valuable Players of the League Championship Series since 1980. Seven of the eight winners have come from the pennant-winning club. Fred Lynn won the award in 1982 despite the Milwaukee Brewers victory over California. For the 1985 ALCS the league named the award for retired A.L. President Lee MacPhail.

The Cleveland Indians have relocated their bullpen area from the third base side to the first base side for the 1988 season.

Reggie Jackson, one of the most prolific and colorful sluggers of all-time, broke into the Majors in 1967 with the Kansas City Athletics. 1968—the A's first year in Oakland—was Reggie's first full M.L. season. In 1969 he had career bests in home runs (47), RBI's (118) and at-bats (549).

Reggie was named to his first of 12 A.L. All-Star teams in 1971. He led the A.L. to its only All-Star victory of the decade with an enormous home run off the Tiger Stadium light tower. In 1973 he won his first Most Valuable Player Award and was also the World Series MVP that year. He helped Oakland to three consecutive World Championships in 1973, '74 and '75.

He became an Oriole for the 1976 season and had 27 homers and 91 runs-batted-in for Baltimore that year. But perhaps his greatest feat occurred in Game 6 of the 1977 World Series as a Yankee—having signed with New York as a free agent that year. He hit three home runs on three consecutive pitches in that Series, leading the Yankees to a World Championship—a feat they would repeat the following year—and earning the nickname "Mr. October."

In 1982 Reggie left New York for the California Angels, where he played four solid years before returning to Oakland last season. Jackson—a career American Leaguer—owns 563 home runs and sixth place on the all-time list. He has played on five World Championship ball clubs and has a .357 World Series batting average.

Reggie announced plans to retire after the 1987 season but was having second thoughts as 1988 approached. His plans for the coming season remain tentative at press time.

PROPOSED PLAYING RULES CHANGES

At the end of the 1987 season the Official Playing Rules Committee redefined the Strike Zone, Balk Rule 8.01 (b) and amended Rule 8.02 (d). The new definitions and amended rule will go into effect upon approval of the Players' Association or beginning in 1989, whichever comes first. The changes are listed below along with the current rules:

STRIKE ZONE

Current—The strike zone is that space over home plate which is between the batter's armpits and the top of his knees when he assumes his natural stance. The umpire shall determine the strike zone according to the batter's usual stance when he swings at a pitch.

New—The strike zone is that area over home plate the upper limit of which is a horizontal line at the midpoint between the top of the shoulders and the top of the uniform pants, and the lower limit of which is the top of the knees. The Strike Zone shall be determined from the batter's stance as the batter is prepared to swing at a pitched ball.

RULE 8.01 (b)

Current—The Set Position. Set Position shall be indicated by the pitcher when he stands facing the batter with his entire pivot foot on, or in front of, and in contact with, and not off the end of the pitcher's plate, and his other foot in front of the pitcher's plate, holding the ball in both hands in front of his body and coming to a complete stop. From such Set Position he may deliver the ball to the batter, throw to a base or step backward off the pitcher's plate with his pivot foot. Before assuming Set Position, the pitcher may elect to make any natural preliminary motion such as that known as "the stretch". But if he so elects, he shall come to Set Position before delivering the ball to the batter. After assuming Set Position, any natural motion associated with his delivery of the ball to the batter commits him to the pitch without alteration or interruption.

Preparatory to coming to a set position, the pitcher shall have one hand on his side, from this position he shall go to his set position as defined in Rule 8.01 (b) without interruption and in one continuous motion.

New—Preparatory to coming to a set position, the pitcher shall have one hand by his side.

Set Position is assumed by the pitcher when he stands facing the batter with his entire pivot foot on, and parallel to, the pitcher's plate, or in front of, parallel to and in contact with, the pitcher's plate. The pivot foot may not extend beyond the end of the pitcher's plate. The non-pivot foot must be on the ground in front of the pitcher's plate. The pitcher must hold the ball in both hands in front of his body and come to a single complete and discernible stop before throwing the ball. A complete stop shall not be construed as occurring because of a change in the direction of the hands and arms.

From such Set Position he must deliver the ball to the batter, throw to a base or step backward off the pitcher's plate with his pivot foot.

Before assuming Set Position, the pitcher may elect to make any natural preliminary motion such as that known as "the stretch". But if he so elects, he shall come to Set Position before delivering the ball to the batter. After assuming Set Position, any natural motion associated with his delivery of the ball to the batter commits him to the pitch without alteration or interruption.

The pitcher, following his stretch, must (a) hold the ball in both hands in front of his body, and (b) come to a single complete and discernible stop, with both feet on the ground. This must be enforced. Umpires should watch this closely; and should immediately call a "balk" for any violation.

RULE 8.02 (d)

Current—The pitcher shall not (d) Intentionally Pitch at the Batter. If in the umpire's judgment, such a violation occurs, the umpire shall warn the pitcher and his manager that another such pitch will mean immediate expulsion of the pitcher. At the same time the umpire shall warn the opposing manager that such an infraction by his pitcher shall result in that pitcher's expulsion.

If, in the umpire's judgment, there is another such pitch during the game by any pitcher, the umpire shall eject the pitcher from the game. If, in the umpire's judgment, circumstances warrant, one or both teams may be officially "warned" prior to the game or prior to an actual violation during the game in progress.

New—If, in the umpire's judgment, such a violation occurs, the umpire may elect either to:

1. expel the pitcher, or the manager and the pitcher, from the game, or

2. may warn the pitcher and the manager of both teams that another such pitch will result in the immediate expulsion of that pitcher (or a replacement) and the manager.

If, in the umpire's judgment, circumstances warrant ONE OR both teams may be officially "warned" prior to the game or at any time during the game.

NOTE: Infielder Tom Paciorek, who qualifies as a Basic Agreement Free Agent Article XX, has agreed to broadcast Chicago White Sox games for the 1988 season; and, therefore, is not listed above.

As part of the remedial phase of the 1985 free agency case Arbitrator Thomas Roberts ordered that the following seven 1985 free agents will have the right to negotiate and enter into new contracts with all clubs: Kirk Gibson, Donnie Moore, Carlton Fisk, Juan Beniquez, Joe Niekro, Tom Brookens and Butch Wynegar. These seven players are listed with their 1987 club, except Kirk Gibson, who signed with the Los Angeles Dodgers. If these players have not entered into a new contract by March 1, 1988, they must elect to either reaffirm their present contracts or terminate their present contracts and have the right to negotiate with all clubs.

MOLITOR'S HITTING STREAK WINS CRONIN AWARD FOR "SIGNIFICANT ACHIEVEMENT"

Milwaukee's Paul Molitor was the recipient of the American League's prestigious Joe Cronin Award for "significant achievement" during the 1987 season, for hitting in more consecutive games than any American Leaguer since Joe DiMaggio's 56-game streak in 1941.

Paul hit in 39 straight games beginning July 16th and ending in Cleveland on August 26th. During the streak he was 68-for-164 with seven home runs.

Brewer club photographer Larry Stoudt took this shot of Molitor acknowledging the County Stadium cheers, as his teammates also applaud him from the dugout.

Paul was third in the voting for the year's Outstanding Designated Hitter, having led that group with a .350 average, a .574 slugging percentage and .440 on-base percentage.

The Joe Cronin Award is named for the Hall of Fame shortstop who served as American League President and Chairman of the Board. The only other Brewer to win the trophy, which was presented to Molitor by his Manager Tom Trebelhorn in January, at Milwaukee's Diamond Dinner, was Rollie Fingers in 1981. Dr. Bobby Brown, President of the American League, will represent the trophy to Paul in field ceremonies prior to the Brewers' 1988 home opener. A list of Joe Cronin Award winners follows . . .
